FOREWORD

In this issue of the Greyhound we have attempted to present Handley High School activities of the year 1936-37, and thereby to reveal to you the spirit of our school. We are proud of our school for its ideals, for what it has accomplished, and for what it will accomplish as the years come and go.

We hope that as you read this book, every page will awaken pleasant memories, bring back old faces and old scenes, and afford a stimulus to dreams of faith and courage.

Greyhound Staff.

Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King.

To
MR. E. L. LOWE

For his ever-present optimism, for his efficient leadership in the field of sports, for his ideals as a Christian gentleman and cultured scholar, we, The Senior Class of 1937, gratefully dedicate this book.

Kelly B. Adair

"Small in statue, big in intellect, and great in heart."

Frank Applegate

"Not merely good; but good for something."

Grover Bates

"An honest man's the noblest work of God."

Rubie Mae Busbie

"Not very tall, not very small,
But fair and sweet and loved by all."

Elsa Cashion

"She is pretty to walk with,
and witty to talk with, and pleasant, too, to think of."

Jewell Marie Chambers

"It's the song you sing and
the smiles you wear
That make the sunshine everywhere."

Pauline Creswell

"There's mischief in her
laughter,
There's danger in her eye."

Jack Dolan

"Pep-punch-personality,
The very soul of geniality."

SENIORS

Fae Ruth Edwards

"There is something in a
merry heart
That draws friends and holds them."

Fon Allen Futrell

"Physical power, friendliness, and sportsmanship,
Are all qualities which we
all admire."

Myranelle Gillis

"Her flashing eyes, her
charming smile,
Does everyone beguile."

Janie Margaret Grady

"She has firmly fixed herself in our memories by her quiet manner, friendly smile, and good nature."

Roy Grgeory

"His high endeavors are an inward light
That makes the path before him always bright."

Amelia Ruth Griffith

"Her ability, free spirit and
pleasing personality
Are known only to the best of her friends."

Charlie Hoskins

"Beautiful eyes are those that show,
Beautiful thoughts that burn below."

Clara Ince

"Dark eyes, dark hair, sweet disposition, industry — who can think of a more captivating combination?"

SENIORS

Gray Johnson

"He thinks the world was made for fun."

Walter W. (Beanie)
Kemp

"He has a head to contrive,
a tongue to persuade, and a hand to execute any mischief."

Woodrow Kiker

"Of gentle mind, of nature
kind,
Of honest heart, believing mind."

Franklin Lewis

"The force of his own merit
makes his way,
A gift that heaven gives for him."

Geraldine Littlepage

"Sweet thoughts are mir-rowed in her face."

Patty Jo Mann

"A cheerful disposition and
a sunny smile,
Characterize her wherever she may be."

and sweet disposition
Radiate the depth of her inmost being."

C. W. McCollum

"Nothing is impossible to diligence and skill."

SENIORS

Billie McGee

"Why be silent today—
Tomorrow I may be dumb."

Ben Merritt

"He may get thumped, bumped,
and dumped, but he won't stay down."

Gladys Middleton

"Tall, agile, and dignified,
We are kept in suspense as to what will happen next."

Margaret Miller

"A conscientious worker who thoroughly
Deserves every thing coming her way."

Ramond Mims

"Joviality, wisdom and good fellowship."

L. D. Mitchell

"The flash of his keen, black eyes
Forerunning the thunder."

Mary Elizabeth Nobles

"A soft tongue never speaks harsh words."

Paschal Perry

"Worth, courage, honor
these indeed his Sustenance and birthright is."

SENIORS

Jack Routt

"A pleasing countenance is no slight advantage."

Berta Bell Simpson

"There is no human charm
that grips the soul as sincere frankness."

Ivan Smith

"Character and ability
Are the working tools of fame."

William Stalcup

"I dare do all that may become a man.
Who dares do more is none."

Mary Elizabeth Thompson

"She sparkled and bubbled
her way through school;
Her chatter has made many an hour pass lightly."

Louise Vaughn

"Her eyes as stars of twilight fair;
Like twilight, too, her dusky
hair."

Marjorie White

"Her earnestness is coupled with desire
To drink deep at the fountain of knowledge."

Carr Winn

"To him life is a simple round of duties to be done."

CLASS HISTORY and PROPHECY

THE Senior class of 1937 began its school history in 1926 and 1927, for it was at this time that the members started to school. This start was, for the most part, made in two schools, the East Side and the West Side. Some of the present group have entered the class during the intervening years, and some of the original group have withdrawn to enter other schools. In 1933 we entered senior high school, at which time our group was organized and our activities as a class were begun. It has been our purpose to participate in our school on a thoughtful, cooperative basis. Some misfortune and much enjoyment have been ours. We have, however, enjoyed our work, our school, our teachers, and our fellow classmates. It is our hope that those who succeed us may enjoy being a part of our school. To all future graduates we wish success and good fortune.

LOUISE VAUGHN.

1115 Forest Drive,
Los Angeles, Calif.,
June 15, 1950.

Dear Elsa:

Congratulations! I just received news of your winning the 100 yard dash in the Olympics. It didn't surprise me a bit after the record you made in dear, old Handley High. I am glad to hear that you are a success.

I guess you know I received my M. D. degree at Southern California. Fon Allen Futrell is head nurse at my new Riverview Hospital in Los Angeles. Fannie and I have just returned from a Medical convention in England. While there we saw Jewel Marie Chambers in "Carmen"; co-starring with her was Frank Applegate. I also saw Gray Johnson while there. He was wrestling for the World Championship as "Man Killer Johnson." Who do you suppose made all American from Southern California? None other than Billie McGee and Grover Bates. They were both spectacular.

I recently made a call at M. G. M. There on the lot I saw Myranelle Gillis, co-starring with Pat Perry, the matinee idol carrying on where Clark Gable left off. Myranelle told me that Pauline Creswell is singing in the Brown Derby in Hollywood. I knew Pauline would get some where with her voice. While there I also heard that Geraldine Littlepage is designing dresses for Paramount Studios.

Last week I made a hurried trip to Fort Worth. In the ticket office at the airport here I saw Janie Margaret Grady. As I boarded the plane, Pat Mann, the hostess, greeted me. She told me that Rubie Mae Busbee is also a hostess for the same line. After getting to Fort Worth I met L. D. Mitchell, the famous criminal lawyer. Later L. D. and I went to the Stock Show. There we saw Raymond Mims, who had brought several of his prize saddle horses down from his ranch in Colorado. He and Clara are very happy there. He told me Jack Routt is foreman of his ranch.

I recently received a letter from Woodrow Kiker. He is now the Mayor of Handley, also quite prominent socially. He said that Margaret Miller and Roy Gregory are teaching school at Handley. Margaret is teaching English and Roy, science.

Ben Merritt and the former Louise Vaughn are happily married and have a beautiful home in New York. Ben is President of the First National Bank there. Jack Dolan, a prominent broker of that city, is frequently in that bank.

Have you and Charlie married as yet? I understand that he has become a great success as coach at Navy. You know that was his high school ambition. I am sure you are still corresponding with Georgia McCamey. I hear she is a manikin in the Marshall Field Department Store in Chicago.

Did you see in the paper that Mary Elizabeth Thompson was touring the country as secretary to John Roosevelt? Not long ago one of our papers stated that Congressman Ivan Smith had secured for William Stalcup an officership in West Point. The article was written by his secretary, Amelia Ruth Griffith.

I saw Berta Belle Simpson last week; she is running a private school for girls. She told me Fae Edwards is the librarian in the school. She also told me she had just finished Majorie White's latest novel, "The Forsaken Garden." Berta Bell said it was very good.

I went to the Little Church around the Corner in New York one Sunday and found Carr Winn the minister there. He preached a very good sermon too. I never thought "Humpty" would be a minister. I had dinner with Carr and he told me Gladys Middleton and C. W. McCollum were in New York. Gladys is dancing in a night club on Broadway. C. W. is driving racing cars in Madison Square Garden.

Mary Elizabeth Nobles is touring the country advertising an exclusive brand of cosmetics. She has become quite successful as a sales woman. Another successful person in whom you will be interested is Franklin Lewis. He has produced an unusually fine gasoline which he sells at a cent a gallon. This bids fair to make him famous. Famous, however, isn't the word for Kelly B. Adair. He has made one of the greatest records of all times with his tennis racket.

Looking forward to seeing you in the Olympics next year, winning of course, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

BEANIE KEMP.

CLASS WILL

Last Will and Testament:

The senior class of '37 from Handley High School, of the city of Handley, State of Texas, being of sound minds and memories, do make, publish and declare this our last will and testament, in manner and form as follows:

First: Rubie Mae Busbee does leave her very charming and winning ways to Mona Belle Montgomery.

Second: Pauline Creswell has requested that her senseless ways be placed upon Louise Tackett.

Third: Jack Dolan wishes to leave his parking space in front of the school to Jack Thompson.

Fourth: Janie Margaret Grady wishes that her silence be passed to Florence Sexton.

Fifth: Louise and Ben bequeath their sweet high school romance to Frances Lose and Cecil Hudgens.

Sixth: Jewel Chambers has requested that her beautiful voice and solo parts be left to Dorothy Drinkard.

Seventh: Clara Ince's fingers on the keys are to go to Frances Meadows.

Eighth: Charles Hoskins leaves his poor excuses and tardy slips to G. T. Freeman.

Ninth: L. D. Mitchell bequeaths his argumentative ability to Eugene Worley.

Tenth: Pat Mann leaves her dry wit to her sister, Betty Jane.

Eleventh: Geraldine Littlepage's dignity goes to Mary Elizabeth Mims.

Twelfth: Beanie Kemp and Woodrow Kiker leave their way with the freshmen girls to Jack Stout and James Stowe.

Thirteenth: Myranelle Gillis bequeaths her art as an actress to Gracie Vaughn.

Fourteenth: Fon Allen Futrell has requested that her athletic ability go to June Wilson.

Fifteenth: Mary Elizabeth Thompson wills her giggle to Merry June Parr.

Sixteenth: Pascal Perry leaves his red hair and big ears to Bahnert Grimes.

Seventeenth: Margaret Miller and Roy Gregory will their seats on the bus to Ruth McKenzie and Cecil Jones.

Eighteenth: Georgia McCamey leaves her sweet smile to Bernice Winn.

Nineteenth: William Stalcup and Amelia Ruth Griffith will their height to Arthur McConnel and Ellen Nelson.

Twenty-first: Billie McGee bequeaths his good looks to Archie Smith.

Twenty-second: Gladys Middleton wants to leave her gliding walk to Geraldine Gouger.

Twenty-third: Grover Bates leaves his football ability to George Mitchell.

Twenty-fourth: Gray Johnson wills his huge shoulders to Charles Wacholtz.

Twenty-fifth: Franklin Lewis wills his quiet, steady ways to Clyde Creswell.

Twenty-sixth: Raymond Mims bequeaths his tall tales to J. D. Mathis.

Twenty-seventh: Jack Routt's likeness to Eddie Cantor goes to Dan Houlihan.

Twenty-eighth: Ivan Smith leaves his speaking ability to Curtis Drinkard.

Twenty-ninth: Fae Edwards wills her domestic ability to Veronica Cain.

Thirtieth: Berta Bell Simpson leaves her place in Glee Club to Frances Morrison.

Thirty-first: Marjorie White's studious attitude goes to Martha Lou Foy.

Thirty-second: Kelly B. Adair's handling of tennis rackets goes to E. L. Lowe, Jr.

Thirty-third: C. W. McCullum wills his reckless driving to Robert Williams.

Thirty-fourth: Carr Winn leaves his nonchalant ways to Clarence Miller.

Thirty-fifth: Mary Elizabeth Nobles bequeaths her ability as a movie critic to Corinne Thompson.

Thirty-sixth: Elsa Cashion wills the "Ram" to her sister, Nan.

Signed: THE SENIOR CLASS
OF 1937.

ATHLETICS

E. S. FARRINGTON
Athletic Director

The Athletic Department under the able leadership of Mr. E. S. Farrington, has performed in an admirable manner, and it is hoped that through his guidance and our efforts this department will continue to grow as in the past.

During the past eight years at Handley, Coach E. L. (Red) Lowe has proved he is the man for the job. With several years playing experience in football, basketball, and baseball, while a student at T. C. U. and 15 years of coaching experience, Lowe was capable and eager to take the Greyhounds into hand and show the District 11-B Conference just what he could do.

A review of the 1936 Greyhound football season proves that he did that very thing. Regardless of the fact that the majority of his men were inexperienced sophomores, Coach Lowe moulded one of the best teams that Handley has ever had.

E. L. LOWE
Coach

This year the Athletic Department has been particularly fortunate in having as business manager Mr. T. L. Carleton, whose hearty cooperation and active interest have been of real value in the work of the department. It is through the efforts and help of such men as Mr. Carleton that we move forward.

Mrs. Fuqua directs girls physical education. A more conscientious teacher, a more able instructor, a better informed leader can not be found anywhere. She never fails to look after her girls.

The wise guidance and able assistance of Dr. C. F. Hayes contributes much to the success of the athletic work of our schools.

Hoskins gets last minute instructions.

Ready to start the battle.

We the seniors of '37.

GROVER "Goober" BATES, Tackle, Jersey No. 38, weight 170

Captain Grover Bates proved the wisdom of his mates in selecting him as leader of the 1936 eleven. Grover was a member of the Greyhounds for four years and lettered his last two. His generalship on the field was largely responsible for the success of the Greyhounds. No one will forget the jarring tackles they received from Grover. Grover was recognized as an ideal captain by coaches, players, and fans.

CAPTAIN CHARLEY "Chock" HOSKINS, Halfback, Jersey No. 31, weight 153

"Chock," a player that maintained a cool disposition and used his head instead of his "Brawn." When a few yards were required for the down "Chock" could deliver. We are sorry to lose the good leader and player Handley has enjoyed for the past three years. Here is where we have proven size is not the greatest factor for a good football player.

BILL "Handsome" McGEE, Tackle, Jersey No. 39, weight 173

Bill became one of the outstanding tackles of the 1936 season. His steady playing was one of the main factors in the purple defense. The iron man played every position on the team and will be greatly missed next year.

GEORGE "Flea" MITCHELL, End, Jersey No. 34, weight 147

"Mitch" stepped into the position of regular end on the Greyhound eleven and before the season was up he had won a good deal of the fans' attention. "Flea" is Captain-elect for the '37 season.

McGee gets off a fine kick (note ball at right of Bill's foot).

GUS "Goose" BIERMAN, Fullback, Jersey No. 32, weight 165

Gus turned in some great performances in the first of the season, but an accident in shop class enabled Gus to play the rest of the season. "Goose" is being counted on very much next year and is Captain-elect.

ARTHUR "Big Boy" McCONNELL, Tackle, Jersey No. 41, weight 180

Without much experience Arthur played enough to letter and was a great help to the team.

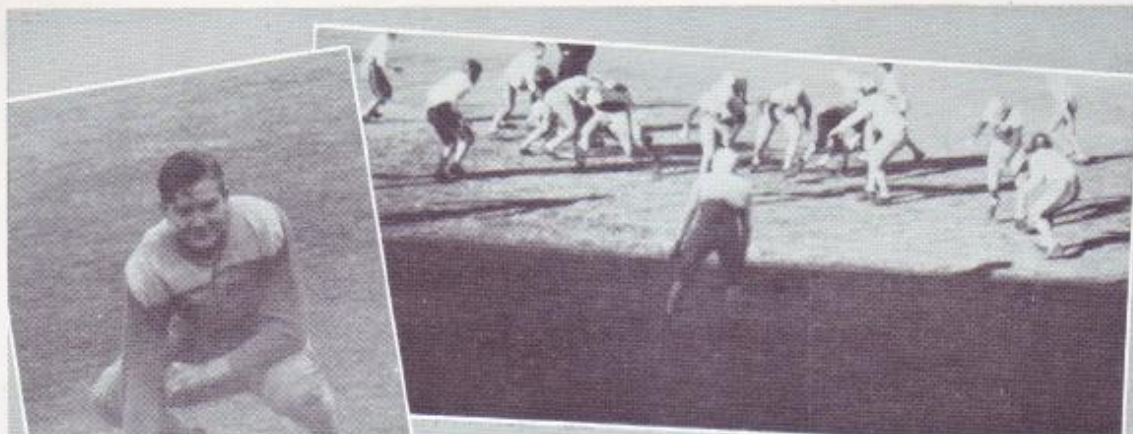

CHARLES "Warhorse" WACHHOLTZ, Halfback, Jersey No. 48, weight 172

Charles was weakened by injuries part of the season, but when he got into the game he turned in some neat gains. He will be counted on to strengthen the Greyhounds next year.

G. T. "Scarface" FREEMAN, Quarterback, Jersey No. 30, wt. 140

Through the able blocking and wisdom of G. T., the Greyhounds made many yards. "Scarface" will return next year.

Hoskins follows fine blocking through center.

WAYNE "Fatty" DODSON, Tackle, Jersey No. 37, weight 160

Dodson's weight made him a valuable reserve on the 1936 eleven. He showed improvement during the season and will be counted on next fall.

PASCHAL "Ears" PERRY, Tackle, Jersey No. 40, weight 150

Without any experience at all, Paschal was a great help to the purple team. With his hard head and determination, Paschal made a good tackle.

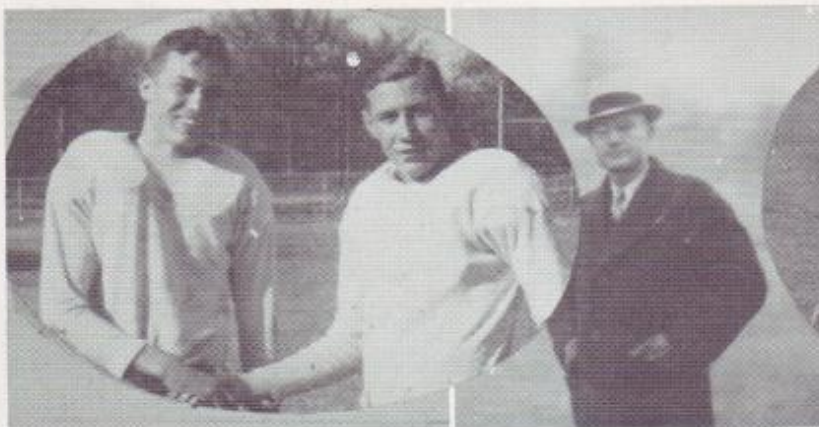

IRA "Stiff" GROVES, End, Jersey No. 33, weight 155

Groves was a newcomer to football and very ambitious. He learned fast and before the season was up, played like a veteran. He will be back next year.

JACK "Nostrals" ROUTT, Center, Jersey No. 35, weight 143

Through all the season Jack was a real center. He backed up the line in great fashion and was never ready to give up. "Nostrals" finished at mid-term.

Left: Captains-elect for 1937, which everyone will be very proud. Luck to them both and wishing you a very successful season.

Center: T. L. Carlton, our very fine business manager, says, "I'm ready for business."

Right: JAMES "Pee Wee" STOWE, Guard, Jersey No. 50, weight 135

Stowe started the season late, but got into a lot of games. Although he was comparatively small for a guard, he battled with all he had. He was a stout defensive man. He has one more year of eligibility.

L. D. "Jenny" MITCHELL, Guard, Jersey No. 45, weight 150

L. D. got a late start in the season, but when he did start, he showed the boys how the guard position should be played. "Jenny" has two letters to his credit and will finish school this fall.

BEN "Banker" MERRITT, End, Jersey No. 51, weight 130

Ben was a good example for all the members of the squad. He hardly missed a practice and was willing to do whatever was mentioned.

J. W. "Spongey" WOOLDRIDGE, Halfback, Jersey No. 36, weight 152

"Spongey" was a great halfback. He came from the line to the backfield and made a very good showing. He was noted for his end around runs.

ELTON JOHNSON

Captain and forward —
"Tootsie" did a good job of leading the team. He had a cool head while the battle was hot. "Tootsie" will be back next year.

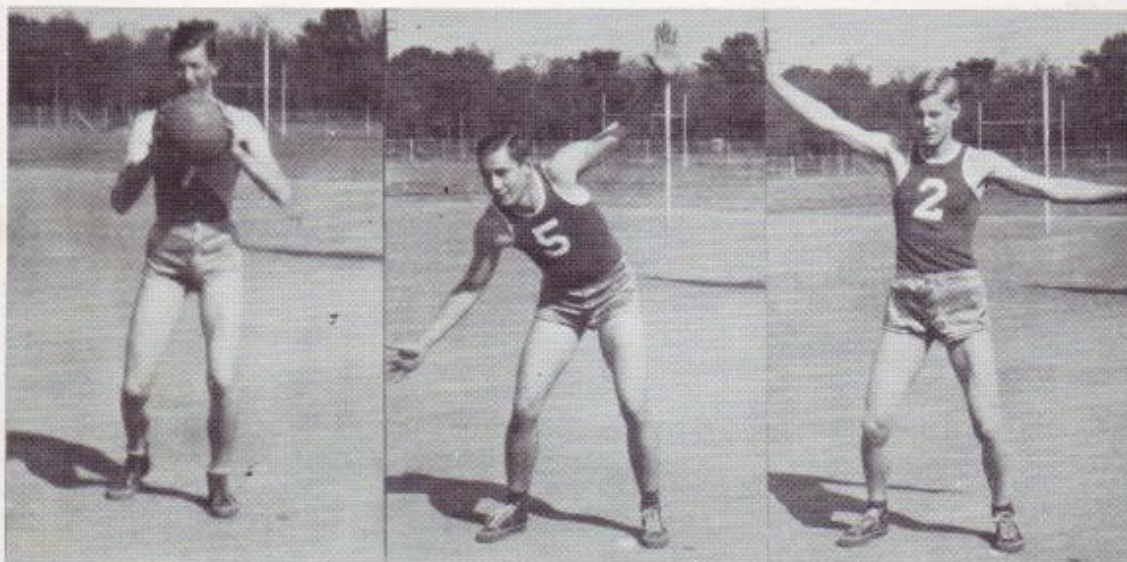

BUS BIERMAN

Guard

Gus was the defense star that would break through on the offense and help decorate the score board. We look to Gus for a big season next year.

JAMES GRIFFIN

"Cotton" is spending his first year in Handley Hi—a valuable man at his position on the defense. The officials of the Cedar Hill Tournament gave "No. 2" the distinction and honor of being the best sport of the large list of contestants. "Cotton" will be back next year.

G. T. FREEMAN

Forward

G. T. received much needed experience. A fast man with an eye for the goal. G. T. should be a great player for two more years in Handley Hi.

GEORGE MITCHELL

"Mitch" was the real leader to give pep to the team. Diamond Hill may well remember the game George ruined for them. All we ask of "Mitch" is to be just as good a hustler on next year's team.

CHARLEY HOSKINS

"Chock" was the spark plug of the team. He hustled the old ball and knew where to put it for the score to be for Handley. We regret "Chock" will not be back next year.

ARTHUR McCONNELL

Center

"Big Boy" could put the hoop around the ball—provided he did not look in the direction of the goal when he threw the ball.

IVAN SMITH

Guard

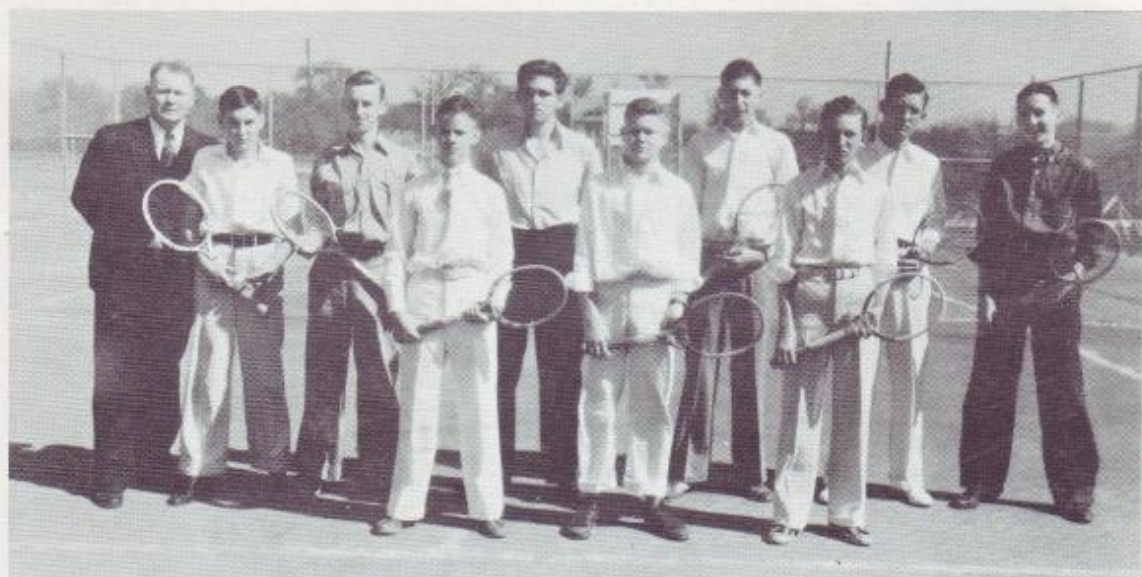

Ivan put all he had in the game. We are sorry to lose Ivan from next year's squad.

O. D. STEVENS

The quiet little forward that developed speed and confidence as the season went on. O. D. will be back next year.

TENNIS

Kelly B. Adair and E. L. Lowe, Jr., represented Handley in the doubles and Frank Barnes in the singles in the City High School Tennis meet at T. C. U. Even though the boys lost their first matches, they played well and we were all proud of them.

Left to right in the picture are: Front row: Kelly B. Adair, E. L. Lowe, Jr., and Frank Barnes.

Pictured from left to right are: Front row: E. L. Lowe, Coach; Curtis Drinkard, Ray Tinsley, O. D. Stevens, Nova Howard, Charles Wachholtz, Eugene Martin, Gus Bierman, Edgar Laney, Franklin Needham, Frank Blackstone, and James Stowe.

Guess who! No, you are wrong. It is not me. It is none other than our Coach E. L. (Red) Lowe. You say there is something wrong?—Yes, there is. It was made 23 years ago. He had just finished striking out 21 men in one game which set a college record and it still stands. You say it's pretty good? I should say it's pretty good! You just try striking out 21 men in 9 innings and see how far you get. Well, that's all. You can read this again sometime, when you turn to this page.

The two years that baseball has been in the Fort Worth schools, Handley has made one of the best showings of any school. In 1935, Handley was nosed out by one-half of a game. But that did not discourage the Greyhounds. Neither did the heavy defeats they underwent in 1937. The squad, with several lettermen back this year, are expected to make a fine showing. From left to right they are: First row: Archie Smith, Frank Blackstone, Ira Groves, O. D. Stevens, James Stowe, Wayne Dodson, Arthur McConnell, Ivan Smith, H. H. Fisher, Gus Bierman, Charles Wachholtz, Glenn Berry, Eugene Martin, Elton Johnson, Jack Neil, and James Griffin. Back row: Coach E. L. Lowe, George Mitchell, C. F. Williams, James Jacks, Herman Boran, Billy Hatchett, Clifton Countryman, Clifford Young, Otis Bratcher, Franklin Needham, Kenneth Jones, John Louis Crawford, John Shelby, Jack Stout, Curtis Drinkard, Harold Bierman, Clyde Morris, Jimmie O'Kelly, Lee Roy McKowan, and E. L. Lowe, Jr.

G. A. A. O F F I C E R S

G. A. A. stands for Girls' Athletic Association. The purpose of this organization is to cooperate with the Department of Physical Education, to promote a spirit of democracy, physical and mental efficiency, good sportsmanship, and athletic and social activities. The colors of this association are the colors of the school, which are purple and white. Membership is open to all girls of Handley High School who are interested in physical education activities.

You must pass three out of four Majors the preceding term, and passing three out of four Major subjects the present semester, to be eligible to obtain points through the "Point System." You must also pass a physical examination given by a school physician. Good sportsmanship is also required before you can obtain points.

The first team in every sport is given one hundred points, the second team fifty points, and the squad is given twenty-five points. Points are given for the following sports: basketball, baseball, track, volley ball, tennis, golf, swimming, archery, and horseback riding. Hiking, dancing, and swimming lessons are additional activities by which you can earn points. When a member has earned five hundred points, they are awarded a G. A. A. felt emblem, nine hundred points awards a G. A. A. pin, and one thousand three hundred points awards a school letter.

Mrs. Fuqua is the sponsor of the G. A. A.

She is keenly alive to all the activities of our club, and more zealous, intelligent leadership could not be found anywhere than we have in her.

"Gus, what is the matter with your brother?" asked Mr. Ward.

"He's crying," replied Gus, "because I'm eating my cake and won't give him any."

"Is his own cake finished?" asked Mr. Ward.

"Yes, and he cried while I was eating that too."

"Where ye'll gwine in such a rage?"

"Ah's gwine to get dat doctah what sewed up my operation wid white thread."

Dr.: "You still take your morning bath, I suppose?"

Mr. Gant: "Never miss it—sometimes I take it hot, sometimes cold, and when I'm in a hurry, I take it for granted."

Mrs. Vaughn: "What do you do around here at vacation time?"

Woody: "Oh, I just fish and loaf."

Mrs. Vaughn: "And what do you do during the school days?"

Woody: "Oh, I just cut out the fishing."

Miss Mashburn: "Why did you drink that stuff? Didn't you see the word 'POISON'?"

Goober: "Yes, I did, but right under it, says 'LYE,' so I think somebody's kiddin."

Miss Farmer: "John Henry, can you define nonsense?"

John Henry: "Yes, teacher—an elephant hanging over a cliff with his tail tied to a daisy."

Mr. Freeman: "I hear my son made a 98-yard run in the big game."

Coach Lowe: "That's true, but did he tell you that he didn't catch the man ahead of him?"

Louise: "I thought you and Myranell weren't on speaking terms."

Pat: "Well, we are now—I wanted to find out what Ruby told her about me."

Miss Odell: "What is the Order of the Bath?"

Frank: "Well, if it's twice a week, it's Wednesday and Saturday. If it's three times a week, it's Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday."

Mitchell's idea of a great country is a land overflowing with milkmaids and honey.

"Dearest Juliet," wrote the dashing lover, Romeo. "I would swim the mighty ocean for one glance from your dear eyes. I would walk through a wall of flame for one touch of your little hands. I would leap the widest chasm in the world for one word from your lovely lips. As always, Romeo. P. S. I'll be over tonight if it don't rain."

Freeman: "Hey, don't spit on the floor."

McConnell: "Smatter, is it leaking?"

Mr. Carleton: "What's the interest in a thousand dollars for one year at two per cent? . . . Charles, pay attention!"

Charles: "For two per cent I'm not interested."

Billy: "A lady called me handsome the other day. Do you think it is sinful of me to feel a little proud of the compliment?"

Beanie: "Not at all, it's the lady who is the sinner, not you."

Mr. Lowe: "How did Mr. Mundens' jokes get across?"

Miss Whitlock: "Probably on the Mayflower."

Stranger: "Say, is there a boy in this school with one leg named Smith?"

Mr. Wall: "Dunno. Dew you know the name of his other leg?"

Charles: "You are the sunshine of my life. Your smile falls like lightning into my soul. With you by my side, I would defy all the storms of life."

Elsa: "Say, is this a proposal or a weather report?"

"Herman! You forgot your rubbers."

Our Editors' hair grows gray,
And his fingertips are sore,
But some poor fish is sure to say,
"I've heard that joke ten times before."

ANNOUNCING: The Winners of the Baby Contest

The Senior Class held a baby contest. Each senior brought his or her baby picture. These were posted in the trophy case and were voted on by number rather than by name. Students of the school other than seniors voted and selected the winners. The difference in the cute babies and the dignified seniors of today was remarkable. Louise Vaughn won the Girls' Division, and Bill McGee won the Boys' division.

THANKS . . .

The Senior Class wishes to express their appreciation to the many firms represented in the advertising section. Your loyalty and support have contributed much toward making this annual possible. We hope the readers of these pages will help bring you business and prosperity.

Sincerely we thank you!

We wish to congratulate all the Students and the members of the faculty of the Handley High School who had any part in sponsoring and publishing this splendid Annual, which is indeed a credit to the Handley Schools.

WAR

The spirits of General Sherman and Napoleon were having a little talk about the changing world.

"Nappy, I'm in bad," remarked Sherman, sadly.

"How so?" queried Bonaparte.

"It's this way," responded Sherman. "The League of Nations is declaring war abolished and the theologians are declaring hell abolished. This doesn't give me a leg to stand on."

NICE HARRY

Mrs. Goldstein and Mrs. Finkelstein were leaning out the side windows of their respective apartments and chatting volubly.

"Ai, what you think, Mrs. Goldstein?" cried Mrs. Finkelstein. "Mine son, Harry, a good boy, came out from jail today. He got four months off his sentence for good conduct. Ai, I'm so happy."

"See, Mrs. Finkelstein, ain't I always said you'd be proud of Harry some day?" replied Mrs. Goldstein.

UP TO HER

"No," said the millionaire, gently, "I haven't the slightest objection to your asking my daughter to marry you."

"Thank you," exclaimed the young man with a title but no cash.

"You go and ask her," the millionaire proceeded, thoughtfully. "I won't interfere. I've given her a good education and taught her to read the newspapers, and if she doesn't know enough to say 'no'—why, she doesn't deserve any better luck."

"Serving You Is a Pleasure"

A COMPLETE MODERN PLANT

SPECIALIST

Whistler, the artist, had a French poodle, of which he was extravagantly fond. The poodle was seized with an infection of the throat one day, and Whistler had the audacity to send for the great throat specialist, Mackenzie.

When Mackenzie saw that he had been called to treat a dog, he felt incensed, but said nothing. He prescribed, pocketed a big fee, and drove away.

The next day he sent posthaste for Whistler, thinking he was summoned on some matter connected with his beloved dog, dropped his work and rushed to the home of Mackenzie.

On his arrival, the great specialist said, gravely, "How do you do, Mr. Whistler? I wanted to see you about having my front door painted."

TIDE AND TIED

Question: "Does the moon affect the tide?"

Answer: "No, only the untied."

COMING UP

CAPTAIN: "Don't give up the ship."

Passenger: "I haven't eaten one."

If You Have GOOD EYES, Protect
Them—If Not, DON'T NEGLECT THEM

● Nearly every child has normal eyesight, but when eyes are used more and more for reading and studying, their efficiency is decreased. If eyes are used under poor lighting conditions, permanent damage may result.

One of the surest ways to avoid unnecessary strain on the eyes is to have the right kind of glareless light when reading, studying or doing any other task that requires close use of the eyes. The new I. E. S. Better Sight Lamps are scientifically designed to provide the proper kind of light for safe seeing.

HAD HIM PLACED

A distinguished visitor to a lunatic asylum went to the telephone and encountered some difficulty in getting his connection.

Exasperated, he shouted to the operator: "look here, girl, do you know who I am?"

"No," came back the calm reply, "but I know where you are!"

WHAT PRICE ZYZZYE?

"What were Webster's last words?"

"Zythum, Zyzomys, and zyssogston."

MISTAKEN IDENTITY

Two backwoodsmen knock on door of cabin.

"Howdy, Joe; me and Ed just found the body of a dead man over in the holler, and we thought maybe it was you."

"What'd he look like?"

"He was about you build, and—"

"Did he have on a flannel shirt?"

"Yup."

"With red and white checks?"

"No, it was plain grey."

(Closing the door): "Nope, it wasn't me."

"Daughter," said the father, is that young man serious in his intentions?"

"Guess he must be, dad," she replied. "He's asked me how much I make and what kind of meals we have, and how you and mother are to live with."

CALLING HER

The teacher was testing the knowledge of the kindergarten class. Slapping a half dollar on the desk, she asked sharply, "What is that?" Instantly a voice from the back row said "tails."
